CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
HARRISON COUNTY

IN THE IOWA DISTRICT COURT FOR HARRISON COUNTY

STATE OF IOWA,
Plaintiff,

FECR011586

vs.
CODY METZKER- MADSEN, Defendant.

MOTION TO TRANSFER THE DEFENDANT TO A JUVENILE DETENTION CENTER

The Defendant moves the Court to order eh Harrison County Sheriff to transport the Defendant to the juvenile detention center in Council Bluffs, Iowa, for placement during the pendency of this case, and states in support hereof as follows:

1. The Defendant is sixteen years of age with a variety of psychological difficulties. Because he is a minor, he is required to be separated from any adult inmates at his current place of incarceration at the Harrison County Jail.
2. As a result of the requirements for sight and sound barrier, and because there are no other juveniles housed at the Harrison County Jail, the Defendant is being detained in solitary confinement in violation of his right to be free from cruel and unusual punishment as is guaranteed by the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
3. The Court should ensure that the Defendant, as any other citizen, is treated in a humane manner. The inevitable isolation of this child whose ability to understand and cope with the difficulties that punitive isolation creates is not humane. This is not to indicate that the Harrison County Sheriff or any deputy has harmed the Defendant in any manner; it is the context of the sheriff discharging his duties that creates the inhumanity.

4. The undersigned counsel requested the counsel for the State to indicate any approval or resistance to this request, but at this time, no response has been received. In the event that the State does not file a non-resistance to this motion, the Defendant requests that the motion be heard as soon as possible.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant requests the Court to order that the Defendant be held at the juvenile detention center in Council Bluffs, Iowa, effective immediately after an order for same is filed.

Respectfully submitted,
